

Urban Studies Peer Advising Application

Being a peer adviser is a great way to contribute to the Urban Studies program!

Job Description:

- Inform current and prospective majors about the Urban Studies program;
- Meet with Associate Director approximately once a quarter to discuss issues in Urban Studies advising and to plan upcoming events;
- Attend advising luncheons at the beginning of each quarter;
- Attend events such as majors' nights in the dorms and Admit Day open house to provide information about the major;
- Respond to occasional email inquiries or meet in person with majors or prospective majors;
- Organize one community-building event per quarter for Urban Studies majors (and prospective majors);
- Other duties as desired and agreed upon with the Associate Director and staff of the program.

Salary: $125 per quarter for approximately one hour of work per week.

Qualifications: Familiarity with and enthusiasm for the Urban Studies program! Must be an Urban Studies major with solid record of academic achievement. Previous advising experience (e.g. RA, HPAC, Peer Mentor) desirable. Two or more peer advisers may be selected, preferably from different concentrations.

Name: _____ SUID (needed to process salary): _____

Concentration: _____ Expect to graduate (month/year): _____

I want to be an Urban Studies peer adviser next year because:

Return to Michael Kahan's mailbox in 120-160 or email to mkahan@stanford.edu by the first Friday in May; successful candidates will be notified within a week.